COE Dean’s Endowed Student Travel Scholarship

The COE Student Travel Fund has been established to provide support to graduate students who present at professional conferences. Students may apply for a maximum of $500 per academic year to offset travel costs (e.g., airfare, hotel accommodations, and conference registration fees).

Eligibility Criteria and Process for Travel Scholarship Application:

1. The student should submit a written request (in the form of a letter) and attached application to the Department Chairperson after receiving notification that the student’s presentation has been accepted for presentation. This request should be made prior to attendance at the conference (except in case of July-August conferences). Applications will be considered for any conference that is scheduled between July 1, 2014 to December 31, 2014. Application deadline is September 30, 2014.

2. The written request should specify the name, date, and location of the conference as well as the title and author(s) of the presentation. A copy of the acceptance notification should be attached.

3. Travel costs that will be offset by the award should be specified including airfare, mileage, hotel accommodations, and conference registration.

4. The Chairperson will recommend the amount of each award based on: (a) level of the conference (i.e., state, regional, national, international); and (b) extent of student need (e.g., distance of conference from Lehigh). The Chair’s Office will then submit these requests to the Dean for final approval. Students will be notified of their award in writing by the COE Dean’s Office.

5. Priority will be given to applicants who: (a) are presenting papers (rather than posters); (b) are first author on the presentation; (c) have applied for funding from the Graduate Student Council; and/or (d) are not receiving travel support from a research or training grant.

6. Upon return from the conference, students will complete the university travel reimbursement form and forward this form along with travel receipts and a photocopy of the first page of the conference program or brochure (verifying the name, date, and location of the conference) to the COE Business Manager for further processing.
